Helen Keller

A Life Nearly Lost

In the late nineteenth century a little girl struggled out of the depths of fear. At the age of two, Helen experienced a life threatening illness. She was plunged into a dark, silent world. Anne Sullivan, a determined young teacher, would find the key to unlock Helen's prison. Through Anne's diligence and perseverance, Helen would become a world renowned speaker and advocate for the disabled.

Enthusiastic response has greeted Jessica Michna's sympathetic and emotionally engrossing portrayals of White House First Ladies. Our audience was so appreciative of her presentations of Mary Lincoln, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Abigail Adams that we are pleased to welcome her back for this portrayal of Helen Keller, as she reminisces about the struggles and triumphs of her fascinating life...
