

the story of Richard Bong, WWII Ace

Richard Bong is credited with 40 combat victories as a P-38 pilot in WWII, making him the Ace of Aces. The year 2014 marked the 70th anniversary of his receiving the Congressional Medal of Honor. Although he survived combat, Bong did not live to see the end of the war. Hear the story of how this Wisconsin farm boy became an American Hero.

Wednesday April 15 at 6:30 pm

New Berlin Public Library Community Room

15105 Library Lane in the City Center

Light Refreshments

Free and open to the public

Join John Dorsey, aviation historian and board member of the Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame, as he shares more fascinating, little-known facts about America's Ace of Aces and Medal of Honor recipient as part of the Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame's statewide commemorative tour. Stick around for a limited edition, collectible gift at the presentation's conclusion.

Sponsored by the New Berlin Historical Society

Call 262-679-3461 or visit www.newberlinhistoricalsociety.org for more information
First Open House at New Berlin Historical Park will be held June 21, 1-4 PM