

OUR PLACE IN TIME: 1918 REVISITED

DOUGLAS COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

1101 John Ave

Superior, WI 54880

Exhibit open through 5/1/2019 FREE ADMISSION

This new exhibit which is 1260 sq. ft., tells the story of Douglas County, Wisconsin's role in the world and at home through what was the year 1918. The exhibit with text and over 60 original artifacts, brings the visitor into WWI with the 32nd Division, the effects of the Spanish Flu epidemic and Superior's amazing role as a refuge for over 5,000 people escaping the largest forest fire in Minnesota history.

Wisconsin joins the fight

---

Training in Texas, the 32nd Division
chased Pancho Villa back and forth to Mexico

---

Our fighting men and women in France and at home

---

Hear about heroics
here and abroad

---

How one city saved thousands from historic fire

DOUGLAS COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

1101 John Ave., Superior, WI
54880

715-392-8449

DouglasHistory.org

Tue-Fri. 10:00-5:00