

Upham Mansion Dairyfest Pie & Ice Creme Social

A new event is planned by the North Wood County Historical Society during Dairyfest Pie and Ice Creme Social, Saturday June 4Th 10:30 through 4:00PM. A hand made quilt created by Rose Larson, sister of Jen Groen society member, will be the displayed donated raffle prize for the restoration fund drive of the Governor Upham Mansion. The unique design represents "Indiana Puzzle" an intricate all over historical pattern that is especially famous in the pioneer days of Indiana. The patch work quilt dimensions are 87" X 96" and will fit up to a king size bed. Raffle tickets are available for the quilt as well as during the museum business morning hours Monday through Friday except Wednesday & Saturdays 1:30PM to 4:00PM when the mansion is open for tours. The drawing will occur on December 12Th at the mansion.

There will be no charge for admission for the open house on the Saturday of Dairyfest weekend. The exhibit theme "I DO" featuring wedding dresses and gift toasters of the past will run currently until June 30Th.

Many flavors of home made pie and hand churned ice creme will be the starting attraction just prior to the Dairyfest parade. Old time music will be provided by Mike Holubrets. Tom Ptak, a Master Consulting Rosarian for the American Rose Society, will be available for Upham Heritage Rose Garden tours.
