

SATURDAY, JUNE 8

10AM TO 2PM

Palmyra Historical Society

112 N 3rd Street, Palmyra, WI 53156

Come see the unveiling of the Loewe-Weis-Wilson display and virtual tour at the Palmyra Historical Society.

The display will include information about the 1872 historic home built by Victor Loewe, a leader for this community at the time, and the evolution of small town farming. The Loewe-Weis-Wilson property located at 504 E. Main Street was officially listed on the State Register of Historic Places November, 2023 and National Register March, 2024.

The Palmyra United Methodist Church will be hosting a homemade pie and ice cream social to raise funds for their upcoming capital project.
