

A Special Program To Honor All Our Veterans

Wisconsin's

Richard Bong Top American Ace Of World War II Medal of Honor Recipient

Presented by

Tomas J. Thomas

Retired USAF Command Pilot

Director, Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame

Saturday, November 8, 2:00 PM

Adams County Heritage Center

311 Main Street, Friendship

Seventy years ago, on December 12, 1944, General Douglas MacArthur, whose family roots were in Wisconsin, presented the Congressional Medal of Honor to the "boy from Poplar, Wisconsin," Major Richard I. Bong. As an air combat veteran and historian Tom Tomas brings his own unique perspective to the story of the man who became America's Ace of Aces in World War II.

Sponsored by

The Adams County Historical Society

608-339-7733

And

The Wisconsin Aviation Hall of Fame

info@wisconsinaviationhalloffame.org

