

Women, Money and Politics:
Who's Winning

WHEN: Tuesday, October 3, 7:00-9:00 p.m.
WHERE: University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire Davies Theatre
SPONSORS: Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, Democracy Matters, League of Women Voters of Wisconsin, UWEC Progressive Student Association, Wisconsin Women's Network, and Community Shares of Wisconsin

We must engage and activate all citizens of Wisconsin on the issues of ethics and campaign finance reform to achieve clean government and real democracy.

Learn and discuss how...

- By tying progress on improving women's health and building political capacity to the health of our democratic institutions, we can build a better understanding of the important role of an engaged citizenry in a real democracy, and the reforms necessary to provide the institutional support and political will that will rein in powerful special interests.
- Through Clean Elections we can make change together and reinstitute voter-owned elections over donor-owned elections, rebuilding a healthy democracy for Wisconsin.

Keynote speaker: Joan Mandle, Executive Director, Democracy Matters
Dr. Mandle was Associate Professor of Sociology and Anthropology at Colgate University from 1990-2001 and director of their Women's Studies Program; and founder/ supervisor of their Center for Women's Studies.

This program is free and open to the public.
